

Social Economic Status

Counties shown in white did not report.

Data on socio-economic status were based on the average percent of youth that qualified for free and reduced lunch. Socio-economic status was used as a control variable in the 2007/2008 study. The data is broken into thirds to show the variability in rates across the counties.